The founder of the Scouting Movement, Lord Baden-Powell, was born on February 22, 1857. As one of the Catholic scout groups, we join others to celebrate BP's birthday through celebrating the scout mass dedicated to the Scouting Movement. We will be attending the 2017 11th Annual Scout Mass coordinated through Archdiocese of Toronto and Scouts Canada.

As this activity consists of both religious and scouting spirit elements, we invite everyone (Catholic and Non-Catholic, Parents, Family and Youth) to participate. Details as follow:

- o Time: The Mass starts at 2:30 pm
(Assembly at 2:00 pm and reception at Parish Hall after Mass)
- o Location: St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica
(65 Bond Street, Toronto, ON – corner of Shuter St. & Bond St.)
- o Celebrant: Most reverend Robert Kasun, CSB
- o Dress Code: Full Uniform (for scout members) or business attire, no jeans

Our Group will arrange bus transportation for all participants to and from St. Michael Cathedral. Details as follow:

Bus will depart at 12:45 pm
- o Dismissal: Same place as assembly (Bus will arrive at around 5:15 pm)
